

Mammals Usually have hair and feed their young with milk. They give birth to live young.	Birds Birds have bodies covered in feathers and their forelimbs are wings. They have scaly legs and beaks. They young come from hard shelled eggs.	Fish Fish live in water and breathe through gills. They usually have fins and have elongated bodies covered in scales.	Reptiles Reptiles have dry, scaly skin and most lay eggs. They get their oxygen from their lungs.	Amphibians Amphibians like moist or wet environments.

